INDEX
TO THE PROSE.

A.

ACademical philoſophers, on a ſect of them. Page 304
Allegory. — — — 361
Anecdote of a miraculous eſcape of King Charles II. 82
——— written by Biſhop Atterbury. — 247
——— concerning the executioner of King Charles I. 299
Arabick language, on the uſe of it. — — 41
Aſtronomical ſtudies, the pleaſures and advantages of. 336
Atterbury, (Biſhop) his letter to his ſon Oſborne. 217

B.

Baxter, (Richard) his vindication of his own conduct. 166
On Beauty. — — — 161
——— ſee Allegory.

C.

CaſtlerBuilding, introduction to a new ſyſtem of. 223
——————— Chap. I. — — 249
——————— II. — — 284
——————— III. — — — 331
——————— IV. — — 379
Clergy, a ſcheme to raiſe a fund for the maintenance of their widows and children. — — 133
—— an addreſs to them. — — 264
Clergyman's family, diſtreſſes of one. — 170
——————— further diſtreſſes. — — 212
——————— widow's hiſtory. — — 255
——————— daughter's hiſtory. ——— 297
Country, innocence of it. — — 321

INDEX.

E.

Earthquakes, ſeaſonable reflection on the late ones. Page 95
——— modern converſation on the ſame. —— 97
——— wonderful effects of the ſame exemplified. 146
Eulogy on early riſing. —— —— 287

F.

Fell, (Dr. John, biſhop of Oxford) his ſpeech at his triennial viſitation, 1685. —— —— 8
Fiddling conſidered, as far as it regards an Univerſity. 92

G.

Geneſis chap. xiii. verſe 10. corrected. —— 342

H.

Halleri (Alberti) de novâ tunicâ oculi fetus claudente pupillam obſervatio. —— —— 261
Horace, Book i. Epiſtle 17. corrected. —— 22
——— Book iii. Ode 26. explained. —— 88
——— Book i. Ode 19. explained. — — 219
——— —— Ode i. explained. —— 297
Humiliation and ſufferings of our bleſſed Saviour. 136
Hunting an improper diverſion for the fair ſex. 300

I.

Of intellectual pleaſure. —— —— 15
—— A ſecond eſſay. —— — — 220
Jones's (John) petition to the ladies in and about St. James's. — — — 369

L.

Learning of no party. — —— 5
Learning of Oxford tradeſmen and college-ſervants. 53
Letter full of P's. — — — 244
Locke (Mr. John) letters relating to his expulſion. 201

INDEX.

M.

Maſquerade, Adventure of an Oxonian at one. Page 57
——— Human life compared to it. —— 183
Membrana Pupillaris. —— — 340
Muſick no improper part of an Univerſity education. 130

N.

Nævius critically explained. — — 165

O.

Oak, Speech of an old one, to an extravagant young heir, as he was going to be cut down. —— 12
Oxonian, excurſion of one, into the country. 321

P.

On female Patriotiſm. —— —— 126
Pietra di Cobra, the virtues of. —— 376
Protector's advice to Alg. Sidney. —— 373

R.

Ranelagh gardens, adventure at. —— 140
Religion, the baſis of true honour. 46
——— Letters in defence of, Introduction to. 90
——— Letter I. — — — — 121
——— II. —— —— —— 175
——— III. —— —— 205
——— IV. — — — 250
——— V. — — — — 281
——— VI. — — — 327
——— VII. —— — — 365

S.

Scripture, on the abuſe of it in converſation. —— 100
Smith's (Edm.) burleſque on his own ode on the death of Dr. Pococke. —— — 383

Stigand's ſpeech to William the conqueror. Page 367
Student, letter of advice to. —— —— 23
——— ditto, adviſing him to adapt his work more to the ladies. —— —— 100
——— ditto, from a ſmart. — — 185
Styles, on the diverſity of. —— —— 381

T.

Tillotſon, (Archbiſhop) his letter to a friend in ſickneſs. 241
Torpedo, new experiments concerning it. — 49
Tradeſman's complaint of his elder brother's behaviour. 178
Tully's Tuſculanæ Quæſtiones corrected. —— 86

U.

Univerſity, letter to a young gentleman on his entrance there. —— —— 18

W.

Wife, an advertiſement for one. — — 103
Of wit and good-nature. — — 10
Wit and beauty. See Allegory.

INDEX

TO THE POETRY.

A.

ADdreſs to an houſe in F—e-ſtreet. —— 153
Ale, a panegyrick on. —— Numb. 3. 65
Alſop (Antonii) Johanni Nicol ode epiſtolaris. 159
Anacreon's firſt ode burleſqued. — — 76
Anacreon's ſixty ſecond ode imitated. —— 390
In Antrum novem fororibus extructum. —— 160
Arbori Pullenianæ. — — — 80
Arms of Achilles. — — — 276
Aſſembly, on a young lady taken ill at one. 74
Aſſurance, happineſs of a good one. —— 310

B.

Batchelor's degree, on taking it. —— 348

C

Chaucer's recantation. — — 230
Congreve's epiſtle to Lord Cobham. — — 396
Court of the lion, a fable. — — 72

D.

Debt, pleaſure to be out of it. — — 114
Diſcontent, the progreſs of it. —— 235
Diſtreſs'd damſel. — — — 310
On dreams, from Petronius Arbiter. —— 69
Drone and Spider, a fable. — — 154

E.

Elbow-chair, addreſs to one new-clothed. 28
On an epigram. — — — 78
On ditto. — — — 118

INDEX.

Epigrama. —— — — Page 360
——— tranſlated. — — 390
Epiſtle from a lady to a gentleman abroad. — 195
Epitaph on a baſtard child murder'd by its mother, Latin and Engliſh. — —— 118
Euripides, chorus in the ſecond act of his Hecuba. 28
——— in the 3d. act of his Electra. —— 276

F.

To Fancy. —— —— 113
Febris intermittens. —— —— 119
Fiddes, (Machen) A.M. de Barking Eſſexiæ Sedgwicke Harriſon M.D. & prælectori hiſtorices. Cambdeniano. 77
Freind's verſes ſpoken to Queen Caroline. — 398
Funeral reflection. — — — 197

G.

Gout, a receipt for it. —— — 193
Grant (William) Eſq; his majeſty's advocate for Scotland, to be placed under his picture. —— 230
On a grotto. — — — 187

H.

Habacuci Prophetæ Oratio. —— — 37
Horace, Book ii. Ode 12. imitated. —— 32
——— —— i. Ode 4. tranſlated. — Numb. 3. 71
——— —— i. Ode 22. imitated. —— 114
——— —— i. Ode 5. paraphraſed. — — 157
——— —— ii. Satire 6. ver. 79. imitated. 190
——— —— ii. Ode 10. tranſlated. —— 228
——— —— iii. Ode 3. tranſlated. —— 307
——— —— iii. Ode 30. alluded to. — — 348
——— —— ii. Ode 14. imitated. —— 389
——— —— i. Ode 7. imitated. — —— 391
Hudibras, part of the firſt Canto tranſlated into Latin doggrel. —— —— —— 358
Hymn to the Creator. —— —— 63

J.

Job, Chapter xxxix. — — — 278

K.

Keith (Petri) Ode adverſæ valetudinis Causâ Ulyſſiponem adituri. — — — 46

L.

On Miſs L——— ——— ——— 116
On a young lady playing and ſinging. ——— 158
Lady and caterpillar. A fable. — . Numb. 3. 70
Love elegy. ——— ——— — 227
Diſintereſted lover. — — — 73
Lover's midnight ſerenade. — — 75
Loveling's Latin tranſlation of Prior's Lady's Looking-Glaſs. — — — 319
Lunar influence. ——— ——— 188

M.

Morning, an ode. — — 234
City mouſe and country mouſe, a fable. — 190
Muſick, on the power of it, a ſonnet. — 192

O.

On an orange-tree in the window of Flavia's bedchamber. — — — 357

P.

To miſs B—. P—. ——— ——— 194
Philips (Ambroſe) epitaph on, by Mr. Rolt. 356
Piety, an ode to. ——— ——— 31
Pitt (Rev. Mr. Chriſtopher) poems by, epiſtle to J. Pitt, Eſq; — — — 265
——— Verſes on a flower'd carpet. ——— 266
——— Epigram on the ſame. — — ibid.
——— Epiſtle to Mr. Spence. ——— 313
——— The invitation, an epiſtle to a friend at court. 315
——— Epiſtle to Mr. Spence, when tutor to Lord Middleſex. ——— ——— 345
——— Ode to John Pitt, Eſq; ——— 385
——— to the ſame. ——— ——— 387
Poet, epigram on a cold one. ——— 357
Pope, (Alexander) his verſes on ſeeing the ladies at Crux-Euſton. ——— ——— 36
——— Ditto, inſcription on a grotto, the work of nine ladies. ——— ———
Prologue to the Student. ——— ——— 63

INDEX.

Pſalm xi. tranſlated. — — 272
—— xxix. paraphraſed. — 317

R.

Raleigh (Sir Walter) verſes by. — 393
Reflection on the year 1720. — 34

S.

Seneca, chorus in his Medea. — 350
Sickneſs, reflections in. — — 70
——— Soliloquy on recovery from — 156
Smart (Chriſtopher) poems by, ode on the fifth of December, being the birth-day of a very beautiful young lady. — — 225
——— Sweet William — — 273
——— Morning-piece: or, an hymn to the hay-makers. — — 311
——— Samueli Saunders, Col. Regal. Cantab. 274
——— Noon-Piece: or, the mowers at dinner. 280
——— Inſcriptions on an Æolian harp. 305
——— Night-piece: or, modern philoſophy. 353
Soliloquy by Thyrſis gazing at Kitty's chamber-window. 232
Sonnet from the Italian. — — 352
A ſong. — — — 268
Sympathetic loadſtones, from Strada. — 354

T.

Tibullus, elegy in imitation of — 25
Toaſts, of writing on them, an epiſtle to Mr. Warton. 238
The modern traveller. — — 35
On miſs Tr—ll—pe. — — — 200

W.

Walpole (Sir Robert) epiſtle to. — 65
Warton (Mr. Thomas) epiſtle to. — 238
On a watch — — — 318
Widow's reſolution. — — — 399
Wiſhing, the abſurdity of it. — — 225
World a fiddle and dance. — — 269

END of the Firſt Volume.